CASE NO.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES FOR VIOLATION(S) OF TELEPHONE
CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT OF
1991 ("TCPA")
[47 U.S.C. §227 & 47 C.F.R. §64.1200]

Plaintiff JAMES M. KINDER alleges:

1. Plaintiff is bringing this action pursuant to the provisions of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 (47 U.S.C. §227 and 47 C.F.R. §64.1200 – "TCPA").

2. Plaintiff is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a resident of the County of San Diego, State of California.

3. Defendants are, and at all times herein mentioned were, business organizations of unknown form, doing business in the County of San Diego, State of California.

4. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names.

Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained.

Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the fictitiously named

1 defendants is responsible in some manner for the occurrences herein alleged and that plaintiff's
2 damages as herein alleged were proximately caused by their conduct.

3 5. At all times herein mentioned each defendant was the partner, agent and employee
4 of each co-defendant herein and was at all times acting within the scope of such partnership,
5 agency and employment and each defendant ratified the conduct of each co-defendant herein.

6 6. Even though the TCPA is a federal statute, state courts have exclusive jurisdiction
7 over private actions brought pursuant to its provisions.

8 7. A few years ago, plaintiff, for valuable consideration, obtained the voice mail
9 telephone number (619) 999-9999. Plaintiff obtained this number so that his clients and 10 customers, as well as potential clients and customers, would easily remember it, thereby making
11 it an extremely valuable number.

12 8. Subdivision (b)(1)(A)(iii) of section 227 of title 47 of the United States Code and
13 subdivision (a)(1)(iii) of section 64.12000 of title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations make it
14 unlawful for any person within the United States to make any call using any automatic telephone
15 dialing system to any telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service,
16 specialized mobile radio service, or other radio common carrier service, or any service for which 17 the called party is charged for the call.

18 9. Defendants are primarily engaged in the business of debt collection, and in 19 connection with such business make telephone calls using an automatic telephone dialing system.

20 10. The telephone number (619) 999-9999 is assigned to a paging service, which also 21 provides voice mail service.

22 11. Defendants have violated the TCPA by frequently calling plaintiff's voice mail at 23 (619) 999-9999, using an automatic telephone dialing system.

24 12 Subdivision (b)(3) of section 227 of title 47 of the United States Code permits a
25 private right of action in state court for violation of the above subsection. Plaintiff may obtain
26 relief in the form of injunctive relief, or plaintiff may recover $500.00 for each violation, or both.
27 If the court finds that defendants' violations were willful or knowing, it may, in its discretion,
28 award up to three times that amount.

1 13. Defendants have made at least twenty-seven (27) calls to plaintiff's voice mail
2 number.

3 WHEREFORE plaintiff prays for judgment against defendants, and each of them, as 4 follows:

- 5 1. For an award of $500.00 for each violation of 47 U.S.C. §227 or 47 C.F.R.
6 §64.1200;
- 7 2. For an award of $1,500.00 for each such violation found to have been willful;
- 8 3. For costs of suit herein incurred; and
- 9 4. For such further relief as the Court deems proper.

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

JAMES M. KINDER,

Plaintiff,

vs.

STATE RECOVERY SYSTEMS, Inc.

Defendant.

Case No: GIC 818823

ORDER DENYING PERMISSION TO FILE
NEW LITIGATION (C.C.P. § 391.7b)

The court has reviewed the papers filed by plaintiff on September 18, 2003. JAMES M. KINDER'S application for an order granting vexatious litigant permission to file new litigation is denied pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 391.7 for the reasons stated below.

In his complaint plaintiff alleges that defendant has initiated telephone calls to his phone in violation of the federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991. The specific violation alleged is multiple calls from an automated dialing system to his voice mail, which is assigned to a paging service.

Plaintiff has not filed any declarations, nor is his Complaint verified. Without some form of evidence this court has nothing but bare allegations upon which to base its ruling. These allegations, both in their facts and evidentiary value, are insufficient for this court to conclude this action has sufficient potential merit to allow plaintiff to proceed and is not simply filed to harass the defendant. In addition, plaintiff is aware of the factual and legal issues presented by

1 this action and appears to have drafted his unverified complaint ambiguously in order to avoid
2 those same issues.

3 This court takes Judicial Notice pursuant to California Evidence Code § 452 of the file in 4 case number GIC 789588. That action involved many of the same issues as does this action.
5 This Court specifically takes Judicial Notice of the order granting summary judgment in favor of 6 the defendant wherein the court found, with respect to plaintiff's phone number, as follows: "the 7 number is not "assigned to a paging service" because it is undisputed that the number is not
8 longer used in conjunction with a pager. Instead, the number is assigned to a voicemail service
9 and Mr. Kinder is not charged based on the amount of calls received. The ordinary and plain
10 meaning of the term "paging service" suggests a paid service in which the user is alerted each
11 time a call is made to the number. This is not analogous to a voicemail service in which the user
12 periodically calls the service to retrieve messages." Because the only evidence before this court
13 is that the number is not assigned to a paging service, as is required by 47 U.S.C. 227, the 14 complaint has no merit.

15 This court further takes note that there were factual issues as to whether the 999-9999
16 number was randomly generated or was a default number, or was otherwise intentionally entered
17 in the system, and whether a random number generator was, in fact, used. Those same issues are 18 present here and plaintiff makes no attempt to provide this court with any evidence that they 19 would be resolved in his favor.

20 Plaintiff is has a legal education and, based thereon, is presumed to understand the legal 21 impediments these findings present in the present case..

22 Therefore, this court finds that this litigation does not have merit and has been filed for 23 the purpose of harassment and/or delay.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.

2 8. Subdivision (b)(3) of section 227 of title 47 of the United States Code permits a
3 private right of action in state court for violation of the above subsection. Plaintiff may obtain
4 relief in the form of injunctive relief, or plaintiff may recover $500.00 for each violation, or 5 both. If the court finds that defendants' violations were willful or knowing, it may, in its 6 discretion, award up to three times that amount.

8 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Invasion of Privacy -- Intrusion)

10 9. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 8 and incorporates them herein by 11 reference.

12 10. The conduct by defendants complained of herein, namely repeatedly calling
13 plaintiff's telephone number which is a number assigned to a paging service, using an artificial 14 or prerecorded voice, for non-emergency purposes, without plaintiff's express permission,
15 constitute intrusions on plaintiff's privacy.

16 11. At no time did plaintiff consent to these intrusions.

17 12. These intrusions were offensive and objectionable to plaintiff and to a reasonable
18 person of ordinary sensibilities in that it interfered with plaintiff's use, benefit and enjoyment
19 of his number assigned to a paging service for which plaintiff pays valuable consideration. This 20 intrusion was into a private chattel wherein plaintiff is entitled to privacy.

21 13. As a proximate result of these intrusions, plaintiff suffered anger, humiliation,
22 embarrassment, hurt feelings, mental anguish, and suffering, all to his damage in an amount
23 according to proof.

24 14. In making the intrusions described above, defendants were guilty of oppression
25 and malice, in that defendants made the intrusions with the intent to vex, injure, or annoy
26 plaintiff or with a willful and conscious disregard of plaintiff's rights. Plaintiff therefore seeks

1 an award of punitive damages.

3 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Engaging in Unfair Business Practices)

5 15. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 14 and incorporates them herein by
6 reference.

7 16. Because these telephone calls violate federal statutes, they are unlawful business
8 practices and thus unfair business practices within the meaning of section 17200 of the Business
9 and Professions Code.

10 17. As a direct and proximate result of their unlawful business practices, defendants
11 received and continue to hold illegally obtained profits belonging to members of the general
12 public who were harmed, in addition to plaintiff.

13 18. Section 17203 of the Business and Professions Code entitles plaintiff to (1) an 14 injunction enjoining defendants from engaging in unfair or unlawful business practices, and (2)
15 this Court's order requiring defendants to restore to the public all funds acquired by means of 16 any unfair or unlawful business practice.

17
18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 (Violation of Consumers Legal Remedies Act)

20 19. Plaintiff realleges paragraphs 1 through 18 and incorporates them herein by
21 reference.

22 20. Subdivision (a)(22)(A) of section 1770 of the Civil Code makes disseminating an 23 unsolicited prerecorded message by telephone without an unrecorded, natural voice first 24 informing the person answering the telephone of the name of the caller or the organization being 25 represented, and either the address or the telephone number of the caller, and without obtaining 26 the consent of that person to listen to the prerecorded message, an unfair or deceptive act.

21. Defendants have violated Civil Code section 1770 by making unsolicited prerecorded telephone calls without first providing the required information in an unrecorded, natural voice and without plaintiff's prior consent to listen to the call.

22. As a proximate result of defendants' violation of Civil Code section 1770, plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer damages in an amount not yet ascertained, to be proven at trial.

23. Civil Code section 1780 provides for an award of punitive damages for violations of Civil Code section 1770.

24. Plaintiff has complied with the provisions of Civil Code section 1782.

WHEREFORE plaintiff prays for judgment against defendants, and each of them, as follows:

On the FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

1. For an award of $500.00 for each violation of 47 U.S.C. §227 or 47 C.F.R. §64.1200;

2. For an award of $1,500.00 for each such violation found to have been committed willfully or knowingly;

On the SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION:

3. For compensatory damages according to proof;

4. For punitive damages;

On the THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

5. For preliminary and permanent injunctions, enjoining defendants, and each of them, from engaging in unfair or unlawful business practices pursuant to section 17203 of the Business and Professions Code;

6. For an order requiring defendants to restore to the public all funds acquired by means of engaging in unfair or unlawful business practices;

1 On the FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

2 7. For compensatory damages according to proof;

3 8. For punitive damages;

4 On ALL CAUSES OF ACTION:

5 9. For costs of suit herein incurred; and

6 10. For such further relief as the Court deems proper.
